

The 2012 JSIL International Conference with KSIL

(Tentative Programme, 19 September 2012)

Date : 6 October 2012

Venue : Tokyo Big Sight, Japan

(<http://www.bigsight.jp/english/general/access/index.html>)

Main Theme : Current Problems of International Law and Northeast Asia

Opening Ceremony (14:00-14:10)

Session 1 : International Environmental Law (14:10-15:15)

HORIGUCHI, Takeo (Associate Professor, Hokkaido University, Japan)

“Japanese Implementation of the London Dumping Convention”

SO, Byung Chun (Professor, School of Law, Ajou University, Korea)

“Cooperation in Environmental Information in North East Asia”

Session 2 : International Criminal Law (15:15-16:45, Coffee Break 16:00-16:20)

TAKEMURA, Hitomi (Associate Professor, Kyushu International University, Japan)

“Exploring the Contours of the Legitimacy of International Criminal Justice -- Focusing on the ICC and the ECCC”

KIM, Sung Won (Professor, School of Law, Wonkwang University, Korea)

"Gone with the Cyclone: Natural Disaster, Crime Against Humanity, and Individual Criminal Responsibility"

Session 3 : International Arbitration (16:45-17:50)

NAGATA, Mari (Associate Professor, Graduate School of Law & Politics, Osaka University, Japan)

“Some Practical Issues on International Arbitration in Japan --10 Years after Enactment of Arbitration Law of Japan”

LEE, Jae Min (Professor, School of Law, Hanyang University, Korea)

"Government's Regulatory Measures and Investment Disputes: Reflections of the Korea-Japan-China Trilateral Investment Treaty"

Closing Ceremony (17:50-18:00)

Representative of the Japanese Society of International Law

YANAGIHARA, Masaharu (President of JSIL)

Representative of the Korean Society of International Law

PARK, Ki Gab (President of KSIL and ILC member)